ROUSE ROYALS DANCE TEAM

Mini-Royals steal the show at half-time

Rouse High School's 2nd annual Mini-Royal Dance Clinic and Football Game Performance gave dancers aged kindergarten-5th grade an opportunity to live the life of the Rouse Royal dance team and perform under Friday-night lights.

Participants learned a pom routine with the Royals on Saturday, October 6 at the Mini-Royal Clinic. They then joined the Royals at the Rouse High School Raider football game on Friday, October 12 at Bible Stadium. The dancers cheered on the Raiders in Victory Lines before the game, sat in the stands during the 1st half, and performed on the field with the Rouse Royals at Halftime. Mini-Royal Guards joined the Royal Guards helping the dancers at the game and cheering on the Raiders in the stands.

Social Captain Haley King said the Mini-Royal Game is a joy for participants. "Their faces light up when they come on the field holding their poms with the Royals," she said.

Royals reign the stage at iDance

The Royals performed in iDance, a district-wide production, on September 29 at Leander High School. Sharing the stage with other Leander dance teams, the Royals showcased a preview of what can be expected from the upcoming year.

"The theme of iDance is 'Five Teams: One Stage,'" said Captain Shaye Whitt, "and that is just what it is — all the schools coming together on one stage to show what they can all bring to the floor."

Letter from your Captain

To my Royals,

I'm extremely proud of how hard y'all have been working. I'm so blessed to lead a team that loves each other and has a sisterhood that no one can break. Continue to give 110% every day and we can do more amazing things. Never forget to show your raider spirit and be proud!

Love y'all from the bottom of my heart,

Shaye
